Everyone going? I've got some work to do this weekend but should be good to go. All signed up. I'm coming up Saturday so I'll probably park on the hill with Ron.

Thanks Guys!

Hopefully the schedule is kind this weekend and we have time. When I took it all apart I was very careful to mark everything and took the time to ensure it when back in the same way. But obviously that is not 100% and I have never checked it since I bought the car off Dan.
