

Cookie Cutters - I know a guy....

Posted by Jump07 - 19 Jun 2008 07:12

I bought a rear sway bar assbly from a guy in San Jose yesterday who is parting out a late 85. He has a set of cookie cutters with rubber (says the tires are junk) and he said he'd take $200..or even less for the set.

If anyone is interested lemme know. I'll pass on his phone number. I never got his name though, but he's cool...and I told him I'd get the word out...so he's expecting a call.
