

What time is everyone getting there this weekend?

Hi All,

What time are people arriving this weekend? I can't wait to finally take to the track at Thunderhill! I plan to leave the south bay around noon (when Hayden gets out of school).

Aubie, did you get a tow vehicle sorted? I hoped to see you out there.

I'm shooting for a pre-noon departure and hoping the traffic doesn't suck. I'll try to block off some room in the "free parking" area across from the toilets so we can use the power poles if I get there early enough.

Sounds great! If you can save us some space that would be awesome. Hopefully, we should not be up there too late. I assume you take the 680, 505, 5 route?

It would be nice to have a 944 "compound" with power.
