

New so cal 944 here

Posted by reflexr - 09 Jun 2014 13:33

Hey all, met a few of you at Buttonwillow, Sunday, good words, plenty of encouragement. Short story, right place and time = free '83 944, minus the transaxle. Found one from a 924s, installing next weekend.

I have been working on cars since I was about 12, raced karts from 7-12, FF from 16-18, hiatus from driving on track til 05(17 years), when I bought a used mustang cobra, and joined the SVTOA. I now have an 06 Mustang, V6, fully suspended, that I open track quite often, time trailed a few times with other groups, but is also my DD.

The 944spec will be my full time track car, and with some love from you all, she should be up and running within the month. I plan on bringing it to WSIR in July, just to get some of your reactions/tips. I look forward to seeing you all there.

The plan is to sort the car over the winter, and be competing in 2015.

I need a roll cage.

Thanks for the support!

Joey Genitempo

Took the number 42 out to an auto-x at cal speedway, had fun. First day, had brake dragging issues, Fred rebuilt the calipers overnight, we installed a different master cylinder, bled the brakes and had a trouble free rest of the day. It's pretty clear we will have to run bigger sway bars(23.5, 18 currently) but she goes, stops, turns and shifts!! Gonna miss Buttonwillow in the car, but as long as I'm not working that weekend, I should be able to come up.

Dropped the car off at Wild Pony Motorsports in Santa Clarita, this morning to get the cage started, they just sent these pics of the main hoop getting installed.

Had a blast at Buttonwillow, playing with Clay in the HPDE sessions. I recorded some runs from Sunday.

Had a blast in TT at WSIR!! We are working our way up to 944Spec. Tough luck for Clay popping his belt. Nice job by Rafi on his comeback, and what a win for Chuck on Sunday!
