Well, we dropped our garage rental, to be able to add the championships reservation. We'll come by and say hello, and it's nice to know we will be at the Championships!! We will again be pitting with my TT friends in their RV. I think I will be eligible to take the test for my provisional at Buttonwillow! See you at the track!

Signed up with a garage even though I do not have my engine together. Should get it mostly assembled this weekend. Thanks to Chuck for his help last week 12 is awesome! We will be burning hotel points for our accommodations, but hope to pit near all of you. Does anyone know the dog policy?
