

944 Spec Videos

Posted by AgRacer - 24 May 2012 14:26

Thought I would start a thread for people to post track/race videos from their 944 Spec. Ill start off with two from my first two events.

NASA April 2012 TWS Race My Fastest Lap

Hallett is coming up so I hope to have some good footage of Texas Region racing.

I use a GoPro Hero 1 and Race Render.

Cool, I'll give that a look. After watching the videos, it's amazing how much more I need to focus on smoothing out my turn entry and throttle on exit!

The MW 944 Spec Championship deciding race -

A great fun battle. Coming into this last race of the season at Road America, any one of the top three drivers could finish in any position. Dan had to win both races, I had to win one vs. Dan, and two vs. Neal to seal it up. Neal (KLR), had to win any one, but in a borrowed car (which unfortunately suffered a mechanical). I am in the camera car, Dan is the other competitor in the video, and drives like a man possessed!

Nice bail into the grass. Did you hear or see the pineapple express coming?

Your car sure does whistle like a power stroke off throttle.

I really want to get up to Elkhart Lake sometime. Its one of my favorite tracks on iRacing.

Here's a clip of earlier this year at Infineon, my least favorite track on earth!

This may have been the day before or later in that race, I can't remember much now that I'm older!
