Im staying in the closes Holiday Inn. We got two rooms but I have family coming so everything is taken.
Count me in for space in the paddock. Im willing to pay. I just work out of the back of my truck usually, but for this event, I will likely unload all my gear into one awning sized area.

OK, I'll go ahead and buy a third spot to cover Phil, AgRacer, and Michael Dearstyne.

. With the current headcount, cost will be ~$55 each. I can figure it out and deal with it at the event. I think we'll be at 8 guys sharing 60 feet of width, so we can probably park all the cars in one row at the apron. Also no big deal to double park a couple of the midwest cars since the same crew is taking care of them out of 1 trailer anyway.

So since the National Series Director holds the track record, and he's not racing this year, does that mean hes willing to share data/video from his record setting lap? I would love to see what a sub-45 lap
