Never heard back from Will, he may be swamped now so I will give it a few more days.

Thanks, I was going to give it until Thursday this week. I know he was busy with the Laguna race.

Will got back to today with a change of plans. He will send me discount codes, and you can sign up online. He will get us grouped together later by ending our purchase receipts to him. The discount code will be capped at 14 uses. As soon as I have the codes, I'll post up here.
