

Convoy to Gateway

Posted by SvoChuck - 22 Apr 2008 17:11

Dirks and I are heading out Thursday around 5-6 pm and will meet up with Weston on I-70 (time will depend on when Weston can make it) . There is a group of truck stops outside of Denver we will be stopping at if we need to other wise we can just adjust our speed to form a nice "convoy" , And driving to Salina (about half way). We will be sleeping at the Flying J Truck stop parking lot in Salina KS Thursday night.

Dave White will be heading out Thursday before noon and then staying in a Hotel near Salina .

Friday AM we will depart Salina and drive on to Gateway. Dirks and I teach a comp school class Friday night.

Dirks will have like 3 color maps of how to get there.

So what is your plan ?

Yes I also sent this to our Yahoo group but I want to make sure everyone gets the info.
